

How do I ...

build a leadership career?

learn from MacArthur "genius"

Majora Carter

Friday, December 2nd

8:00pm - 9:30pm

Bard College Chapel

Majora Carter founded Sustainable South Bronx and coined the term "Green the Ghetto" as she pioneered one of the nation's first urban green-collar job training and placement systems.

Ms. Carter is President of the environmental consulting firm, the Majora Carter Group and host of American Public Media's Peabody Award winning radio show, "The Promised Land".

Sponsored by the Bard Center for Environmental Policy, the Environmental and Urban Studies Department, and the Center for Civic Engagement.
