

APRIL 17, 2013

Billions of dollars in fossil fuel money are corrupting our democracy and poisoning our future. Take action and join us!

A National Conversation on Democracy and Climate

Wednesday, April 17th, 2013

7:00 PM to 10:00 PM

Olin Hall, Bard College, New York

Join over 90 campuses for a NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION focused around political corruption and climate stalemate! Bard CEP and the C2C Fellows Network will screen climate documentary, The Island President, a film about the former president of the Maldives' struggle to maintain democracy in his country while simultaneously stabilizing the climate. Directly following the screening we will host an interactive conversation with:

Jon Shenk Film Director (remotely)

Thilmeeza Hussain Former UN Deputy Permanent Representative to the Maldives

May Boeve Executive Director and Co-Founder of 350.org