

New York Conference on Asian Studies 2004
Bard College
Annandale, NY 12504 – 5000
Friday, October 29 and Saturday, October 30, 2004

Conference Theme: Asian Border Crossings

Website: <http://inside.bard.edu/nycas>

REGISTRATION FORM FOR NYCAS 2004 AT Bard College, OCTOBER 29-30

Please choose one of these packages:

Package A: Two days complete, includes NYCAS dues, Indian banquet Friday, breakfast Saturday, Japanese box lunch Saturday, plus all refreshments. Includes theater tickets for Friday night's performance and entry to all panels, films and talks.

Faculty (or other adult) $106

Graduate student $84

Package B: Friday only, includes NYCAS dues, Indian banquet Friday and theater tickets for Friday night's performance.

Faculty $89

Graduate student $67

Package C: Saturday only, includes NYCAS dues, breakfast and Japanese lunch.

Faculty $67

Graduate student $47

Package D: Registration only, includes NYCAS dues, breakfast & refreshments, no theater tickets. (Tickets can be bought at the door if space allows.)

Faculty $62

Graduate student $42

Undergraduates from Bard and area colleges may attend the panels at no charge. To attend the performance Friday night, they will have to buy tickets at the student price and show student I.D.

Please fill out and return the sheet below with your check for the total amount of the package you have selected. If you do not pay for the specified meals at this time, you will probably not be able to join those meals (Indian banquet and Japanese lunch) at the conference but will have to purchase meals at the snack bar or student cafeteria.

Bard is a small college in a rural area. Accommodations are scattered widely and are in high demand for the fall "leaf peepers" season. We hope to accommodate those for whom it is most difficult to pay for housing in very spartan campus houses. They should contact me directly (gould@bard.edu). Those without cars should stay along a van route, i.e., at The Grand Dutchess, the Red Hook Inn, the Gaslight, or the Hearthstone. Those with cars should stay elsewhere. Identify yourself as a conference participant!

New York Conference on Asian Studies 2004
Bard College
Annandale, NY 12504 – 5000
Friday, October 29 and Saturday, October 30, 2004

Conference Theme: Asian Border Crossings

Website: <http://inside.bard.edu/nycas>

I will tether my horse to a river willow and wait for the will of the southwest wind.
Li Shangyin

FILL OUT & RETURN THIS PAGE WITH YOUR CHECK

Name:

E-mail address:

Street address:

Phone number:

Fax number:

Cell phone:

I am a presenter.

Name of panel, round table, or paper:

I am attending but not presenting.

I will be travelling by car, plane, train. (circle)

I will/will not have transportation (car or ride from someone with a car) while at the meetings.

I am a faculty member.

I am a graduate student.

Other – specify:

I am coming from overseas.

I am on a minimal budget and seek cheap spartan accommodations.

I am booking accommodations at (specify if you have already booked them):

Package selected: A B C D

Amount of check:

Number of check:

NOTE: No one will be entered into the program until the registration fee is paid. It should be paid by September 1st.

Send this form and your check made out to “Bard College NYCAS” to Katherine Gould-Martin, Bard College, Annandale, NY 12504